Bearbeiten Sie die folgende Aufgabe auf Deutsch!

Erklären Sie den Ausdruck “some [...] are hopelessly lost down online rabbit holes” (Z. 56f.) im Textzusammenhang.

Task II: Mixed Reading Tasks(9)

(Text II: The AI apocalypse is coming! Personally, I welcome our new robot overlords)

1. Gapped Summary(7)

Fill the gaps in the summary with appropriate words or expressions (one word per line) from the corresponding sections of the text. Do not make any changes. Please also provide the number of the line in which you have found the word/expression.

Ryan Coogan argues that it is only wishful thinking to assume our jobs are safe. In fact, he is convinced that many positions will eventually be _____ (two words, l. ____) to AI.

What also concerns him is the lack of regulatory measures regarding new technology, citing the slow and inappropriate response of _____ (l. ____) to hate speech and racist activities on social media.

Despite the serious issues, the author displays a rather humorous approach when dealing with the topic, comparing past doomsday scenarios with AI dystopia. Like many Millennials, he is _____ (l. ____) to zombies; and even if the zombie apocalypse seems rather far-fetched, he finds it a far more appealing version than the currently debated gradual _____ (l. ____) of society and culture.

The AI apocalypse may not be so unlikely after all. Even Geoffrey Hinton, a pioneer of AI, believes that this technology is employed to produce and spread a _____ (l. ____) of misinformation.

The manipulative potential is enormous if one considers that fake material will become _____ (l. ____) from reality.

And if Hinton's predictions turn out to be true, robots may eventually _____ (l. ____) our intellectual capacity and wipe out mankind, which – from the author's ironical point of view – might not be a worst-case scenario.
